

I inherited a box of family photographs from my grandmother. I have been able to identify the people in all except this one. I have asked around the family and no one knows the identity of this woman and girl. The grandmother, to whom the photos belonged, was Blanche Redhead (nee Harrison). She was born in Gainsborough but lived in Lincoln after she married my grandfather, Joseph Farrow Redhead.

The families of her grandparents, as well as Harrisons (from Messingham/Willoughton), were Maltbys (from Ingham), Halls (from Bishop Norton) and Senescals (from Willingham by Stow/Willoughton).

I would love to know why my grandmother kept this photo.

Thank you.
